e. The value of the allocation factor or factors.
f. The dollar amount after allocation.

Electric, Gas and Telephone Utilities

106. Provide a list, preferably in a computer file or files, of all work orders greater than $100,000 in total cost closed to plant since the end of the immediately preceding test period. At a minimum, include the work order number, the date closed to plant, the expenditure amount, the AFUDC/IDC amount, and if available, any CIAC amounts.

107. Provide a list, preferably in a computer file or files, of all line extension agreements entered into since the end of the immediately preceding test period, or three years, whichever is less, through the end of the test period. Provide dates and dollar amounts received under the extension, and the related work order identification number. For companies with Nevada jurisdictional gross operating revenue that is: (a) less than $100 million dollars, the response may be limited to extension agreements equal to or exceeding $50,000 dollars; or (b) greater than $100 million dollars, the response may be limited to extension agreements equal to or exceeding $100,000 dollars.
Gas and Water Utilities Only

108. Sales and Transportation Volumes. Provide, preferably in a computer file or files, by rate schedule the monthly sales, transportation and unaccounted for volumes reconciled to system inputs for the test period.

109. Systems Map. Provide a general description and map or maps of the distribution, transmission and storage systems.

110. System Leaks. Provide the recorded number of leaks in the distribution, transmission and storage systems categorized by type and size of pipe for the past five years preceding the first month of the test period.

111. Vintage Year Costs. Provide, preferably in a computer file or files, for each vintage year through the end of the test period the installed cost of pipe by size (diameter), by type of pipe and the linear feet of pipe installed for the transmission system, for the distribution system, and for services.

112. Bill Frequency Analysis. Provide, in a computer file or files, a bill frequency analysis for each month in the test period for each present rate schedule and for each proposed rate schedule.

113. Revenue. Provide, in a computer file or files, the revenue, the number of customers and the units sold by month for each individual rate schedule for the test period.

Water Only

114. Provide copies of all invoices for water quality testing in the test period.

115. Provide, preferably in a computer file or files, all vehicle and equipment logs. The logs should list the vehicle or equipment, the project or activity, and the mileage or operating hours.

116. Provide, preferably in a computer file or files, time logs or time sheets, which record the projects or activities for each employee for the test period.

117. Provide copies of all electric bills, which are included in the revenue requirement for the test period.

118. Provide, preferably in a computer file or files, all pumping records by month for the test period.
119. Provide a list, preferably in a computer file or file, of all work orders closed to plant since the end of the immediately preceding test period. At a minimum, include the work order number, the date closed to plant, the expenditure amount, the AFUDC/IDC amount, any CIAC amounts, the number of customers to be served or served and a brief description of the project. For projects, which can be measured by length, provide the dollars per foot of installed cost by type of plant. Include sufficient identifying data so that all supporting documentation and any related reports can be readily located.

120. Provide a list, preferably in a computer file or files, of all line extension agreements entered into since the end of the immediately preceding test period through the end of the test period and certification period. At a minimum, provide the number of customers by rate schedule for each extension, dates and dollar amounts received under the extension, and the related work orders. Include sufficient identifying data so that all supporting documentation and any related reports can be readily located.

121. Permits. Provide, preferably in a computer file or files, a list of all health-related permits held by the utility.
